Safe Call Now may maintain other websites and apps, which are governed by their own privacy policies.

Please see our Terms of Use which governs the use of the Services. We encourage you to read this Policy before using the Services, and not to use the Services if you disagree with any part of this Policy. By using the Services or by clicking a box that states that you accept or agree to this Policy, you signify your agreement to the terms and conditions of this Policy.

The Services are controlled and operated by Safe Call Now, and are not intended to subject Safe Call Now or any affiliated entity to the laws or jurisdiction of any state, country or territory other than that of the United States. We may limit the availability of the Services, in whole or in part, to any person, geographic area or jurisdiction we choose, at any time in our sole discretion.

I. INFORMATION THAT WE COLLECT ON OR THROUGH THE SERVICES

A. Personal Information

In this Policy, when we use the term "Personal Information", we mean any information that can be used to identify or contact a specific individual, such as the individual's name, postal address, email address and telephone number.

Visitors to the Services may register and opt-in to receive Safe Call Now email newsletters by providing their email address and zip code (children under 18 cannot opt-in for this email newsletter). We also may collect Personal Information through surveys, questionnaires, or optional Visitor submission forms. Your participation in such activities is entirely voluntary.

We may receive your Personal Information from other sources, such as public databases.

B. Collection of Information by Our Service Providers and Use of Cookies and Other Technologies

We and third parties who provide services to us may also collect certain information automatically when you visit the Services, including through the use of cookies and web beacons, such as the browser you are using (e.g., Safari, Internet Explorer, Chrome, Mozilla Firefox, etc.), the internet address from which you linked to the Services, the operating system of your computer (e.g., Microsoft Windows, iOS, Android, etc.), the unique IP address of the computer you used to access our Services and usage and browsing habits. We may use this information to administer and improve your experience on our Services, to help diagnose and troubleshoot potential server malfunctions, and to gather use and demographic information. Some of these third parties may use this information for other purposes.

Our web pages and our e-mail newsletters may contain "web beacons." Web beacons are small pieces of data embedded with images on pages of the Services or in emails, which allow us to collect information such as the number of users that have visited a web page or opened an email.

C. Non-Personal Information

Non-Personal Information is aggregated information, demographic information, high-level location information, such as the browser language and country during the user session, and other information that does not reveal a person's specific identity. We may collect Non-Personal Information (e.g., interests, etc.) when you voluntarily provide such information to us, such as through survey responses. Such information constitutes Non-Personal Information because, unless combined with your name or other Personal Information, it does not personally identify you or any other user.

Additionally, we may aggregate Personal Information in such a manner that the end product does not personally identify you or any other user of the Services. For example, we might use Personal Information to calculate the percentage of our users who live in a particular state. Such aggregate information is considered Non-Personal Information for purposes of this Policy.

We may use third-party service providers to provide certain services on our behalf, including to process donations.
